ADVICES AND QUERIES ON MEETING FOR WORSHIP

The heart of the Religious Society of Friends is the Meeting for Worship. In direct communion with God, we offer ourselves for God's will. Our daily lives are linked with the Meeting for Worship, the Meeting for Worship with our daily lives.

Come regularly to Meeting for Worship, even when you are angry, tired, or spiritually cold. Bring your joys and your hurts, and the needs of other people. Accept and support each other in the community where God dwells among us. As you do so, you may find the grace of prayer.

At times the Spirit may prompt you to speak in Meeting. Wait patiently to know that the sense and the time are right. When you are sure, have confidence that the words will be given to you. Listen to the ministry of others with an open spirit. If it is not God's word for you, it may be for others. After a message has been given, allow time to ponder its meaning and to let the Meeting return to silent worship. In speech and in silence, each person contributes to the Meeting.

- Do I come to Meeting with heart and mind prepared for worship?
- In both silent and vocal ministry, do I respond to the leadings of the Holy Spirit, without pre-arrangement and in simplicity and truth?
- Am I careful not to speak at undue length or beyond personal spiritual experience?
- Do we meet in expectant waiting for the promptings of the Divine Spirit?*
- Are we drawn together in a living silence by the power of God in our midst?*

(From Faith and Practice, a Guide to Quaker Discipline in the Experience of Pacific Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, 2001)

† Some queries are intended for individuals.

Italicized queries are intended for the Meeting collectively.

Chico Friends Meeting
MEETING FOR BUSINESS December 9, 2018
Minutes

Regrets: Rick Narad

We began our meeting with silent worship. Our Clerk welcomed everyone & offered reflections.

Clerk's report Jim Anderson, Clerk, reported on fliers & information from the Jesus Center, Friends of Ramallah in Palestine, Friends United Meeting, Western Friend, and Quaker House in North Carolina. Upcoming events include Quaker Heritage Day, Feb. 23, in Berkeley. A film about the ship called the Golden Rule, which sailed long ago to protest nuclear testing, will be on tour, beginning here in Chico in late January.

Nominating Committee Janet Leslie, Clerk, brought their report, which included a second reading of the slate of nominees. There were no changes in the slate. Her report reviewed the committee's work.

MINUTE: 1-12-2018 We approved the slate of nominees for the coming year as presented by Nominating Committee.

Finance Committee Rebecca Senoglu, Treasurer and Clerk of Finance Committee, presented the final draft of the 2019 CFM Budget, describing a few changes, for approval.

MINUTE: 2-12-2018. We approved the 2019 CFM Budget as presented by the Treasurer.

As requested at our last meeting for business, Finance Committee has established a Camp Fire Fund, listed as a sub-fund to our savings account at Members First Credit Union. The fund serves to address the needs of those affected by the 2018 Camp Fire. The Finance Committee was asked to check on possibilities of insurance coverage for any use of the Fellowship Hall for Camp Fire needs [for example, the hosting of a family]. We have not yet heard from the insurance company.

Building and Grounds Committee Janet Leslie, Clerk, reported on their committee's cleaning, maintenance, and planning work, & the meetinghouse use of the AA "Mom's Group." The annual Fire Department inspection was completed, and the report will be posted. Her report is attached.

MINUTE: 3-12-2018

We accept the AA group as an ongoing Fellowship Hall user with the present arrangement of three meetings a week and a use fee of $10 an hour. We understand that the group may request additional hours and we are ready to consider that when there is a specific proposal brought to our Meeting for Business.

It was proposed that having a bathroom in the meetinghouse would improve the use of the meetinghouse, and some preliminary exploration of costs would be a useful step.

Ministry and Oversight Committee Linnea Hanson, Co-Clerk, reported on the work of their committee. Rick Narad and Linnea Hanson agreed to help with the disbursement of the Immigration Minute for submission to the local newspapers by our clerk. Linnea has also sent the Chico Friends Meeting Immigration Minute to be posted on the Pacific Yearly Meeting Peace & Social Order page which has occurred.

Online Communications Steward Peter Milbury reported on updates to the CFM Website, including Response to the Camp Fire. A proposed "CFM-Discuss Email Forum" was described as a forum for discussing ideas regarding the Camp Fire response. Those who are active in CFM could join the discussion & share information. Decisions would not be made.

MINUTE: 4-12-2018

We ask Peter Milbury, our Online Communications Steward, to create a CFM Discuss Email Forum, with a set of guidelines reflecting our discussion, and a plan to review our experience of the forum use in 6 months.

Discernment: The Fire Fund—Can we develop a preliminary statement about its proposed use to distribute to potential donors, many of whom have asked this of us?

We addressed in a period of discernment the need to send a preliminary proposal regarding use of the fire fund to prospective donors. Jim and Rebecca will develop a brief statement reflecting the points raised in this discernment, and distribute it to the wider community and post it on our web site page.

We closed our meeting with worship.

Jim Anderson, Clerk and Barbara Roberts, Recording Clerk

CHICO FRIENDS MEETING EVENTS & NEWS

Chico Friends Meeting Camp Fire Fund:

Chico Friends Meeting has established a Quaker Fund for people affected by the Camp Fire in Northern California. Mary Klein of Western Friend has circulated information about the fund. It has also been listed on the Pacific Yearly Meeting website and on the Chico Friends Meeting website and facebook page. We thank everyone who has donated to this fund. The total amount in the fund is currently $26,497.00 from 100 donations as of Dec. 15, 2018. Donations have come from a variety of places. The farthest is Fritchley in the United Kingdom. The largest number of cities that have donated have been from here in California with Santa Rosa with the highest number of donations for any one city. Our neighboring states have all donated; Oregon, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Utah, Montana, Wyoming and Colorado. There have been donations from the middle of the country from Arkansas and Minnesota. And on the east coast there have been donations from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Washington DC and North Carolina. –Linnea Hanson

Preliminary statement on intended uses of the Camp Fire Fund by Chico Friends Meeting

We intend to use our fire fund to aid those most affected by the fire and with least access to other means of support and assistance. As the community enters this next stage of recovery, we will focus on housing assistance. We will in particular seek ways to assist undocumented and low income people and families rebuilding their lives. We will consult and coordinate with other local groups, research arising needs, and seek to discern best use of fund resources as conditions become clearer. Throughout this process we will rely on the “promptings of love and truth” working in us and through our corporate Quaker practices as we move to action. We are mindful of the trust and responsibility present in the funds we receive from others as we, in Penn’s words, “endeavor to mend” parts of this community in need. We will regularly report on our use of this fund on our website, and revise and focus this statement of intended use as we take up specific programs of assistance. –Jim Anderson and Rebecca Senoglu

Online Forum for Camp Fire Ideas and Information

During the Called Meeting for Business in November it was suggested that we establish a communications channel where the Meeting might continue to have informal discussions regarding the Camp Fire. Making use of our CFM-Mail was not available due to its configurations for allowing only announcements. Other online options are available, and could to be explored and considered.

Several types of free online forums were explored: blogs, interactive websites, etc., such as Facebook, Google Blogger, and other free websites or blogging software. All that were explored had limitations related to privacy and/or ease of access or use. After review, it appeared that we might set up something similar to CFM-Mail, but constructed to allow participants to post new messages or responses to the group. That way, all participants would be allowed to post and respond via emails.

A proposal to do so was brought before the regular Meeting for Business on 12-9-18. After some discernment, approval was given-- for a six month trial run. The CFM-Discuss Email Forum, rather than being a wide open discussion, the focus is on sharing information and ideas about the Camp Fire. Meeting for Business made it clear, it is NOT a forum where decisions or advocacy for decisions take place.

The CFM-Discuss Email Forum is now available. Your CFM Online Communications Steward, Peter Milbury, will support and assist you in the use of the forum. To join CFM-Discuss Email Forum, or for forum support please email your request to: chicofriendsonline@gmail.com or to pmilbury@pacbell.net

Here are the basics of how the forum works:

All who have been added the CFM-Discuss Forum may post to the forum. Do so by sending an email message to this address: cfm-discuss@googlegroups.com

Please be sure include a topic in your subject line, beginning with "Camp Fire", e.g., "Camp Fire- Let's Donate to xyz" or "Camp Fire- Let's Do such-and-such".

All forum members may reply to the CFM-Discuss Email Forum by responding to a posting. If you want to respond or reply, be sure you send it the forum address: cfm-discuss@googlegroups.com

To join the group, simply send an email to chicofriendsonline@gmail.com, stating that you would like to join.

Fun Family Community Activities: At the retreat it was mentioned that we need to do more community activities to spend time together. Tanya Heaston and Linnea Hanson are willing to arrange activities in the coming months. If you have an idea for a fun family activity that you think others in Chico Friends Meeting would enjoy doing, please contact them with your idea. This could include bird watching, going to a movie, visiting a museum in town, board games in the Fellowship Hall, or just having tea and talking about current events in the Fellowship Hall. For January, we plan to go bird watching and attend the Golden Rule event.

–Linnea Hanson

Llano Seco Bird Watching January 5, 2018.

Let's meet at the CFM Meetinghouse at 9 am and car pool out to the Llano Seco viewing platform to bird watch. There are ducks and geese galore out there! Please dress warmly. Bring binoculars and bird books if you have them. Bring water or not tea and snacks. We will plan to be back to the meetinghouse by noon. –Linnea Hanson

The Golden Rule Documentary Tour begins in Chico Friday January 25, 2019 from 7:30-9pm. Location to be announced. In 1958 four Quaker activists sailed the Golden Rule toward the Marshall Islands in an attempt to stop atmospheric nuclear bomb tests. After decades in private hands, she sank and was rescued from a watery grave in Humboldt Bay in 2010. Five years of painstaking restoration by Veterans For Peace and dozens of supporters brought the boat and her mission back to life! Soon the historic wooden sailboat embarks on its fifth annual journey to promote a nuclear free future, educate about the dangers of radiation to humanity and the environment, and support peaceful alternatives to war. —Jim Anderson

Meetinghouse Care Day on Saturday January 12: Please come and help keep our meetinghouse buildings and grounds functional, clean, and in good order. Indoor and outdoor tasks for all ages, good company, refreshments. Questions? Ask Building and Grounds Committee members (Peter Klement, Janet Leslie, JM Rodriguez) or our Meetinghouse Steward (Bill Carlson).-Janet Leslie

A new year! We welcome members and attenders of our Meeting into new roles as committee members, officers, representatives, and liaisons, and look forward to our work together in 2019. New terms begin January 1st, and we hope that committees will be holding meetings early this month to get a good start on the year. Please contact Nominating Committee with any questions about how this Quaker system works and about the responsibilities that you have taken on. Many thanks to those who have served the Meeting in the past year.
---Janet Leslie, Cynthia Lammel and Peter Milbuty, CFM Nominating Committee

Welcome the New Year with Birthday Greetings to Ariana Stafford (1/8), Claudia Hanson (1/12), Christine Rowe (1/22) and Landon Simmons (1/31).

Quaker Thought and Life: This winter, we are using the QuakerSpeak Video, 9 Core Quaker Beliefs of Arthur Larrabee as our outline for our Quaker Thought and Life series on the second and fourth Sundays at 9am. On Jan. 13 we will talk about the eighth belief that our inward experience of God transforms us and leads us into outward expressions of faithful living, witness, and action. And on Jan. 27 we will talk about the ninth belief that modeling God's presence in our lives is more important than espousing beliefs. Please come and join in these discussions.—Linnea Hanson, Rick Narad, Jim Anderson and Dan Shoemaker

OUR WIDER QUAKER COMMUNITY

Come to Winter Quarterly Meeting on Saturday January 19 in Santa Rosa: The theme of this one-day gathering of northern California and Nevada Friends is "Prophetic Witness and Hope in Difficult Times". Quaker author and traveling minister Brent Bill will help us explore how we can speak faithfully and truthfully in hard times and how we can be for instead of against (for peace, for equality, etc), thereby sustaining a witness based in deep faith that supersedes administrations/governments and offers a winsome invitation to others to join us. Onsite registration, worship, morning and afternoon plenary sessions, lunch, keynote speaker, worship-sharing, and interest groups. Children's and Teen programs. Requested donation $35. Information is posted and available at collegeparkquarterlymeeting.org and from Janet Leslie.

This year's Quaker Heritage Day is February 23 at Berkeley Friends Church, 9 am to 3:30 pm.

Jon Kershner, author of John Woolman and the Government of Christ: A Colonial Quaker's Vision for the British Atlantic World and several other books, will lead sessions on John Woolman. The program is free and open to all. Suggested donation is $25 with lunch, $20 without. If you desire lunch and/or childcare please register by February 13 at www.berkeleyfriendschurch.org. For more information, see flyer posted in the Meetinghouse, go to the website, or talk with Janet Leslie, who has attended Quaker Heritage Days in the past.

Have you been asking yourself, What does a “faithful life” look like in 2019? Join Marty Grundy and Connie Green, for Faithful Living in Challenging Times from February 22 - 24, 2019. To get glimpses of hope and joy, we will tell stories—ours, yours, radical Jesus, and early Friends. We will explore the importance of personal spiritual disciplines and try one on for size. Can we discover what hinders our faithfulness, and what empowers it? Find out more at <http://www.quakercenter.org/Faithful-Living/>

VOLUNTEER UPDATES and THANK-YOUS

Thank you! To all the folks in Chico Friends Meeting that have helped during the Camp Fire. Here are the brief reports Chico Friends Meeting people sent in of their help. Thanks to everyone who helped!

Susan Hughes: After 4 tries it looks like I finally have someone who is really moving in. Maybe temporarily, maybe longer. Also my Christmas gifts are simpler, and involve buying things where all I pay, goes to fire victims. Plus scholarship for those who lost their Irlen glasses in the fire.

Rick Narad: I now have someone living in my spare room who lost his house. Mostly working on Safe Space—lots of problems with anticipated extra people needing shelter combined with losing churches that we would have used to other evacuation activities (two of them are hosting schools and others are still sheltering people).

Rebecca Senoglu: Lots of socializing! Hosting evacuees for dinner, let them use our laundry, providing distraction and hugs. There is so much love. Also working on securing an RV or trailer and a place to put it for a family in need. This is a work in progress. With Malama Macneil, did a show on KZFR, The Real Issue, about grief and loss related to the Camp Fire and heading into the holidays. Finally, processing checks to the Camp Fire Fund!

Loree and Bill Monroe: Bill and I have been hosting a couple from Paradise. I believe they will have found a place to live in Chico soon. Bill has been volunteering at the disaster recovery center, helping people apply for cash grants, either with TzuChi Foundation or the United Way. I have, too, but like once a week. Six of my coworkers have lost their homes, and I have been helping them as I can.

Peter Milbury: Hosting and helping two evacuees and two dogs at our house; gifted my tablet iPad to them; with our family visiting from Bay area (7 of us) cleaned and repaired empty, semi-abandoned house most of the day on Friday where these two evacuees could live. Our family up from Palo Alto volunteered Wednesday afternoon at World Kitchen. Worked on CFM website and Facebook pages to highlight CFM responses to Camp Fire; also searched out a means of providing an online communications idea and information sharing channel, ending up building-supporting our CFM-Discuss Email Forum, as approved by Meeting for Business in December.

Katherine Mackinnon and Scott Wolf: We have been hosting an evacuee for the last two weeks, a Butte student needing housing to finish the semester. We are taking in dogs and chickens to foster/adopt. And, of course, we have donated money to various funds to support survivors as well as donating some material goods and gift cards directly to survivors. Scott has been helping people locate housing.

Thank you everyone! If you helped but your help was not listed know that your help was certainly appreciated. –Linnea Hanson

Dinners at the Torres Shelter

December Dinner: Thanks to all the volunteers that helped at the Torres Community Shelter dinner on Sunday, December 2. 14 of us gathered on Saturday December 1 in Fellowship Hall and made 350 Christmas cookies for the dinner the next day. A good time was had by all. –Linnea Hanson

Our next dinner at the Torres Shelter is Sunday, January 6. Please join to help. The guests at the Shelter are so grateful, and the Shelter depends on us and other community groups to provide these meals. Please sign up at the Meetinghouse or contact the team leader, Leslie Howard (leslie.t.howard@gmail.com). – Janet Leslie
